Now that you have finished your book you should be able to look back at some very key points in the book. Pick one chapter, page, paragraph, quote or event that you think contributes the most to the entire text. Example: In the Hunger Games, the author writes a lot about the haves and the have not's when Katniss gets to the Capital. This repeated message shows me that this book is as much about current economic times as it is a dystopian novel...
